Why do we process the data and on what legal basis?

Data is processed in the context of a pre-contractual measure or for the purpose of concluding and executing a contract. The processing of your data is necessary according to Art. 6 par. 1 b) of the GDPR to enable us to carry out the pre-contractual measure or to conclude and fulfill the contract with you. Furthermore, the processing of data is necessary according to Art. 6 par. 1 f) of the GDPR to protect our legitimate interests. Our legitimate interests relate to the fulfillment of mutual obligations arising from the contract between us and you. If you have given us your consent to do so, data is also processed for advertising and marketing purposes. You are entitled to reject the use for advertising and marketing purposes at any time.

What types of data do we process?

We process the following categories of data in particular: master data (e.g. name, address), communication data (e.g. telephone number, e-mail address), contractual data (e.g. start and end of contract), receivables data, any relevant payment information (e.g. bank details, outstanding receivables)

To whom do we pass your data?

Within CAS Software AG and its affiliated companies, your data is shared with those offices that require it to fulfill our obligations. Insofar as it is necessary for us to do so to execute the contract, we will pass your data to credit agencies, other service providers, attorneys, and, where applicable, courts, debt collection agencies and court bailiffs.

Will data be transmitted to a third country or to an international organization?

Your data is not normally transmitted to a country outside of the EU. If service providers in a third country are used to carry out processing on our behalf, these providers are obligated to maintain the same data protection standards as the EU.

Following the expiry of the respective contract between you and us, we will check after three years whether we still need your data and whether its deletion contradicts any legal retention obligations.

Am I obliged to provide data?

The processing of the collected data is necessary for the conclusion and execution of the contract between us and you. If we are not permitted to process the data, we are unable to fulfill our contractual obligations to you. If you decide to reject the processing of data, we would be forced to terminate the contract.
